Dear Sir:

Head of State have been visiting Jonestown, Guyana, and have been greatly impressed. It is cruel to try and tear down a work that is doing so much to aid the needy of this world, as some have tried to do. The wonderful work of Jonestown will surely survive, however, as it is known around the world for the wonderful programs it has.

I look forward to the State Department giving encouragement to the efforts of these dedicated Americans overseas.

Your truly [redacted] EA 136
